'Didn't They Do Well!' contains up to nine rounds of crazy after dinner activities in hilarious bouts of light-hearted competition as each table battles for supremacy in this fun and frivolous game show format.

From Telly Addicts to Catchphrase, our Master of Ceremonies and his team will take you on a game show ride to remember! A highly interactive and fun event, 'Didn't They Do Well!' encourages group activity and communication and helps bring your guests together as they strive to become 'top table'.

Everyone is involved and teams need use their strengths as each round takes on a different subject or skill. From the creative 'Clowning Around' to the probing 'Family Fortunes' a blend of hands on activities and traditional quiz questions will have your guests hooked. Then as the competition reaches fever pitch who can resist the last chance saloon - The Conveyor Belt! Saving the best 'till last this is definitely the observation round with a difference. And for the winning team?

The night would not be complete without the star prize - a cuddly toy! This high energy and entertaining event will revitalise your guests for the evening ahead.
