

Murder Mystery

Duration:	90 to 180 minutes
Guest Numbers:	10 - 300
Requirements:	Takes place around your dining table

Light hearted, informal and perfectly paced this 'over dinner' event is slapstick British humour at its best; an evening's entertainment that will certainly have your guests speculating 'Who Dunit?' Suspecting nothing of the drama about to unfold, guests gather for pre-dinner drinks and a night laced with surprises.

The actors mingle suspiciously, providing your guests with pseudonyms for the evening. Then on to the dining room where the scene is set and the evening of intrigue commences. Naturally, it would not be a 'Murder Mystery' without at least one murder occurring.

During dinner, each team cross examines the characters, extracting significant clues from the actors as they circulate between tables, passing idle gossip and casting red herrings as they go. Between courses your guests will be treated to instalments of the drama, providing further mystery to be unravelled. Guests will instantly bond as they excitedly discuss ideas and questions in their mission to guess the culprit. An evening of fun and laughter is guaranteed in an event your staff will talk about for years to come.

Please note: We do not recommend Murder Mystery Events where you deem it inappropriate for your guests to be involved in light-hearted banter, 'Carry On' type humour.
