Whether you are a connoisseur or a relative novice, this dip into the fascinating world of your chosen tittle will leave your taste buds wanting more!

Hosted by our own resident specialist this engaging pre-dinner event involves eyeballing, swirling, sniffing and tasting. All become second nature as you attempt to identify the distinctive elements from the fabulous selection on offer!

Using almost a quarter of a century of full-time experience, your professional compère kicks off the evening by providing a brief incite into the history and traditional tasting techniques associated with your chosen element. Whilst full of information, the introduction is accessible, relaxed and sociable. Enthused, your guests will then blind sample a mouth-watering selection handpicked by our expert.

Entertaining and informative, this unique event provides an informal and mouth-watering journey into your chosen topic, providing guests with an evening of fun they will talk about for years to come! Available to taste are: Wine, Beer, Whiskey or Wine and Cheese combined.
